

Little Leaguers Have Real Big Day to Open Season Activities

By JO JENSEN

That Little League opening day, Sunday, was really a BIG thing. The parade of family cars decorated in the colors of teams followed the cars carrying the officials and officers and trucks carrying the players and the North High band and Majorettes to the playing field with horns blowing and streamers flying. After the opening ceremonies of flag raising, credits to workers, and introductions of officials and players, the double-header got under way. In the first game the Bruins took the Trojans, 5-1, with Carey Hubert getting the first hit, a home run, over the fence. In the second game the Indians beat the Bears, 9-7, with Jimmy Carrico of the Bears getting a home run. The second game ran into two extra innings.

The improvement in the conditions at the ball park is amazing. Hard top has been placed over a large area which certainly makes it nicer for the spectators as does the fine fence around the bleachers and refreshment stand. The condition of the field is excellently trimmed grass and many other improvements. The refreshment stand has been sealed, painted, and is doubtless a better place to work—and, believe me, those ladies were working. About halfway through the afternoon they had sold over 500 hot dogs and countless gallons of punch.

Boys who will play on the major teams are as follows: Bears—Manager, Joe Sorenson; Sam Cardova, James Ford, James Carrico, Terry Friesner, Don Stewart, Bruce Campbell, Terry Dotson, Donald Reynolds, Jon Baker, Larry Henderson, Steve Sorenson, Burrell Dunbar, Terry Gaegerich, Rocky Setting, Bruins—Manager, Bert Richardson; Skip Mooney, Eddie Fisher, Ronnie Burns, Robert Wallace, James Baker, Carey Hubert, Eddy Babic, Gregor Boell, Donald Fieps, William Cunerty, Michael Gutsch, Michael Jacobs, Jesse Fadick, Gary Byoski. Indians—Manager, Ed Williams; Nick Hanlon, Ray Ault, Joe Cartorena, Ralph Coleman, Mike Towell, Wayne Stewart, Chucky Williams, Jerry Snively, Robert Trowthorn, Norman Wagner, Dennis Blackburn, Darryl Wilson, Glen Bornhoff, Richard Silagy, Gene Barnett. Trojans—Manager, Irwin Mack; Richard Peters, Bryant Smith, Everett Snow, Gerry Sewell, Donald Murphy, Richard Campbell, Bill Whitlow, Jeffrey Bell, Dennis Welch, Randy Mack, Jerry Leininger, Steve Van Camp, Jimmy Jensen, Brian Tully, Bobby Williams.

The minor teams will play their first games on Tuesday and Thursday and after this will play the first game on Saturdays and Sundays which will make each week end a double double-header. Players' Pool meets Saturdays at 9 a.m. at Dominguez Field.

Just to prove that the boys of the community aren't the only ones with activities, we have a report about a Brownie troop, Troop 2022, with Leader Sara Bramlett in charge, at-

Palos Verdes Men Boosted By Northrop

Three Palos Verdes residents have won promotions at Northrop Aircraft, Inc., according to an announcement by Edgar Schmued, Northrop's vice president in charge of engineering.

They are George Mangurian, 1544 Addison Rd., Palos Verdes Estates, former chief of structures at Northrop. His new position will be chief analytical engineer; Roy P. Jackson, 1120 Via Mirabel, moves into the position of assistant chief engineer, and Don D. Warner, 3057 Navajo Pl., was appointed chief of structures.

Mangurian, a native of Springfield, Mass., has been with Northrop since 1930 and has been engaged in the aircraft structures field for 21 years. He is a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Jackson joined Northrop in 1953 as chief of fluid dynamics department. He is a graduate of Stanford University.

Warner has been with Northrop since 1951. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and has been engaged in the aircraft engineering field for 16 years.

Delegates Named for Lutheran Convention

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League, an auxiliary of the Southern California District, Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, will hold its sixth biennial convention tomorrow and Saturday at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

Delegates attending who will represent St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Harbor City, will be Mrs. Norman Friedrichs and Mrs. W. V. Shanks.

CITIES PREFERRED

tended Cinerama Holiday Saturday. Fourteen girls with 10 younger brothers and sisters were escorted by nine parents.

A number of women from North Torrance attended the mother and daughter banquet at St. John's Lutheran Church at the Western Club in Gardena last Thursday evening. A celestial theme of angels, complete with golden trumpets alternating with golden harps, all on a bed of clouds with cherubs on the program covers and tags in the form of fluffy clouds was very effective. A parade of wedding gowns, one from 1904, was a feature of the evening as were the many musical numbers. Pastor Harold Lorimer held forth with humorous remarks and then led into a more serious mood. Among the 225 guests were Mrs. Frank Johnson with Donna, Wanda and Pamela; Mrs. Paula Smith, Mrs. Dale Swanson and Debbie, Mrs. Robert Wayland and Wendy, Mrs. Dale Smith and daughter-in-law, Phyllis Smith; Mrs. Ed Trucks and Janice and Linda, Mrs. Martin Taylor and niece Judy, Mrs. J. A. Jensen and Joy.

The library at North Torrance Elementary School is in its third week of operation. So far the children through the third grade only have had its privileges. The books are being processed for the upper grade students. The PTA project has been so well organized by Mrs. Harry York.

Robert Vallandigham Jr., 3528 W. 185th St., celebrated his sixth birthday Saturday with 14 of his friends. A cowboy theme was carried out in games played on the patio. Refreshments were served and greatly enjoyed by all the cowboys and cowgirls.

Thursday evening the parents of eighth graders Evelyn Carr Elementary school will visit North High. They will meet at the library at 8 p.m. for a short business meeting. An escorted tour of the entire campus is planned, so wear your walking shoes.

Tommy Clark celebrated his fifth birthday last Saturday with 22 guests. They had a swell time in the new patio that seemed to have just been made for the occasion. It was poured just a week before the party.

at their home at 16620 Falda Ave. A cold buffet was served. Mrs. Anastina Osterberg baked and decorated an elaborate cake for the occasion featuring an open Bible and lovely roses.

There were nine members of the first confirmation class at Ascension Lutheran Church Sunday. Congratulations are in order for David and Dolores Dahlberg, Sharon Hood, Kenneth Kramer, Linda Lawhern, Douglas Loop, Arthur Neumann, Sina Osterberg, and Barbara Roth.

Patty Reynolds celebrated her eighth birthday Tuesday evening with a chuck wagon dinner for Kathy Kritschmer, Kathy Brown, Pamela and Kathy Johnson, Gordie Thomas, Joy and David Jensen. Cowboy bandana kerchiefs wrapped the marshmallows which the children roasted themselves after all the hot dogs, beans, salad and cake were gone.

A surprise baby shower was given for Mrs. Marion Fahmeyer by Mrs. V. Bryant at her home at 2711 W. 178th St. A baby bassinet in pink and white, pink and white sandwiches and pink and white flowers left no doubt that the baby in question is a girl. Individual servings of cake in the form of pinafors decorated with pairs of booties were served with coffee. The guest list included Mmes. Maurice Hattum, Tommy Traynor, Curtis Johnson, Walt Buffington, Paul DeLange, Dana Kelso, Harry Edmark, John Ferrario, Lloyd Van der Vort, Wiliam Hoag, Al Nichols, Jerry Leonard, Arthur Hill, Howard Bates, Francis Stoecle, and Kent Proctor.

Mary Ann Launer and the cast on her foot are creating a lot of interest in her set these days. The two breaks are the result of one too many jumps from a lifeguard station during a family trip to the beach. Not content to let his sister outdo him, John is sporting a number of stitches on the side of his head after an encounter with a gate at Torrance Park on Mother's Day. Never a dull moment when there are four children in a family.

Come on, David Sanberg, get well quick after your tonsillectomy.
